The Second Coming of Yeshua (Jesus) How are we to prepare? Part 2

Isaiah 8:12-13

Do not say, 'A conspiracy,' Concerning all that this people call a conspiracy, Nor be afraid of their threats, nor be troubled. The Lord of hosts, Him you shall hallow; Let Him be your fear, And let Him be your dread.

Isaiah 2:2

Now it shall come to pass in the latter days that the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established on the top of the mountains and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow to it.

The Restoration of the Kingdom of God

Micah 4:1 – 5:5

2 CORINTHIANS 5:9–11 2 CORINTHIANS

Therefore we make it our aim, whether present or absent, to be well pleasing to Him. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad. Knowing, therefore, the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are well known to God, and I also trust are well known in your consciences.

Matthew 24 - 25

Background

- Yeshua's (Jesus) Triumphal Entry into Jerusalem (Matthew 21:1-11)
- Teaches for 4 days in Jerusalem and Temple (Matthew 21 23)
- Explains the end of the age and the signs of His return (Matthew 24-25) His last teaching prior to the Passover
- Events leading to His crucifixion, burial, and resurrection

Temple Destroyed

 Matthew 24:1-2 - Then Jesus went out and departed from the temple, and His disciples came up to show Him the buildings of the temple. And Jesus said to them, "Do you not see all these things? Assuredly, I say to you, not one stone shall be left here upon another, that shall not be thrown down."

Sign of Your coming & End of the Age

 Matt 24:3 "Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign of Your coming, and of the end of the age?"

End Days According to Scripture

- Wrath of God Romans 1:16-2:12
- Perilous Times 2 Timothy 3:1-17

End Day Terminology

Eschatology

- The study of the Bible's teachings about the events leading up to the second coming of Jesus
- From the Greek, eschatos (final) + logos (word) = "a word about the final things."

• First Coming of Christ

• The earthly life and ministry of Jesus Christ, about 4 BC–AD 30.

• Second Coming of Christ

 $\circ~$ The bodily return of Jesus to earth to reign as king.

Church Age

• The time period from the beginning of the church (about AD 30) until Jesus Christ returns for everyone who has trusted in him.

Millennium

• The thousand-year reign of Jesus on earth, described in Revelation 20:4–6. From the Latin, mille, meaning "thousand."

• Premillennial

• The belief that the millennium is a future event and Jesus will return before (pre-) the millennium.

Amillennial

• The millennium is a symbol of Christ's present reign among his people.

• Postmillennial

 Jesus will return after (post-) the millennium. The millennium is the time in which most of the world submits to Jesus, and peace and justice reign.

• Preterism

• The eschatological viewpoint that suggests some, if not all, biblical prophecies about the end times refer to specific events that happened in the first century. From the Latin, praeter, meaning "beyond" or "after."

End Day Terminology

• Preterism

 \odot From a preterist view, the antichrist may refer to Emperor Nero.

 \circ The tribulation may refer to the Jewish War (AD 66–73).

 \circ The destruction of the temple in prophecy may have been fulfilled in AD 70.

• Rapture

 \circ Event described in 1 Thess. 4:16–17 when Jesus Christ returns for his people.

From Latin, raptus, meaning "carry away."

- Historical premillennialists, amillennialists, and postmillennialists understand the second coming of Jesus and the event described in 1 Thess. 4:16–17 as the same event.
- Dispensational premillennialists believe that the rapture and the second coming of Jesus are two separate events.
 - They place the rapture before the great tribulation and the second coming after the tribulation.

End Day Terminology

Tribulation (Great)

- The time when disasters happen on the earth and people who are faithful to Jesus suffer intense persecution, possibly lasting seven years.
- Premillennialists place the great tribulation near the end.
- Dispensational premillennialists typically believe that the tribulation will last exactly seven years.
- Many historical premillennialists view the reference to "seven years" as a symbol of the completeness of God's dealings with the world as the end of time approaches.
- Most amillennialists and postmillennialists treat the tribulation as a symbol of calamities and persecutions that have occurred throughout church history.
- Some amillennialists and postmillennialists are preterists—they believe that the great tribulation occurred AD 63–70, during the Jewish-Roman War.

Historical Premillennialism

- Christians will remain on the earth during the great tribulation
- Tribulation will purify the churches by rooting out false believers
- The second coming of Christ will precede the millennium
- The church has replaced the nation of Israel as God's covenant people
- The 1000 yr millennium is a literal future event
- All creation would be restored to its original goodness in a millennial kingdom
- Earliest view of the end times among the early church

Amillennialism

- No literal thousand-year rule
- The millennium is the spiritual reign of Jesus in the hearts of his followers
- 1st resurrection in Rev. 20:5 is not a physical restoration from the dead, but the spiritual resurrection known as regeneration.
- Christ's triumph over Satan through his death and resurrection restrained the power of satan on the earth
- Persecution of Christians (tribulation) will occur until Jesus comes again, as will the expansion of God's kingdom (the millennium)
- When Christ returns, He will defeat evil, resurrect the saved and unsaved, judge them, and deliver them to their eternal destinies.

Amillennialism

- The great tribulation represents disasters, wars, and persecution that have occurred throughout church history
- References to Israel in Revelation are symbolic references to the people of God on earth
- Amillennialism became popular in the 5th century and remains popular to today

Postmillennialism

- Second coming of Christ will occur after the millennium
- A period of tribulation may precede the millennium
- Millennial reign (Rev 20:1-6) represents a long time period when, through the preaching of the gospel, most of the world will submit to Christ
- satan will have no power over the earth, and evil regimes will collapse
- Some Charismatic churches embrace dominion postmillennialism God is using the contemporary charismatic movement to bind satan
- When the church recognizes the fullness of its power through the Holy Spirit, the church will establish God's kingdom on earth and usher in the millennium, a golden age.

Postmillennialism

- 2 views on tribulation:
 - Brief time of persecution that occurs immediately before the millennium
 - 7 years of the First Jewish-Roman War which culminated in AD 70 with the destruction of the 2nd Temple
- Emphasize the preaching of the Gospel
- Gospel will spread to everyone in the world
- Emphasize the power of the Gospel to transform societies and individual lives
- During the millennium, Christ will rule the earth through his Spirit and through his Church but He will be physically present on the earth
- Resurrection in Rev 20:4 represents the spiritual regeneration of people who trust in Jesus Christ
- Events occurring immediately after the millennium:
 - Second coming of Christ
 - Final conflict between good and evil
 - Defeat of Satan
 - Physical resurrection of all people
 - Final judgement
- Became popular around 1100's

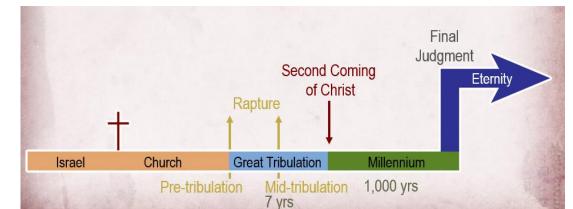

Dispensational Premillennialism

- Christ's return and rapture are separate events
- Jesus will return to earth after a 7-year tribulation
- Jesus will rule during a 1000-year millennium of peace on earth
- God will restore the nation of Israel the land described in Genesis 15:18
- Rapture comes before the great tribulation
 - Pre-tribulationists: Christ removes Christians from the earth before the great tribulation begins
 - Mid-tribulationists: Rapture occurs during the great tribulation
- Second coming after the great tribulation

Dispensational Premillennialism

- 7-yrs tribulation:
 - People who are faithful to Jesus will suffer intense persecution
 - Natural disaster and wars will occur
 - Many Jews will turn to Jesus Christ
- Emphasizes literal interpretations of Revelation
- Establishment of modern state of Israel in 1948 fulfilled a key end-times prophecy
- References to Israel in Revelation refer to the nation of Israel
- Emerged in the 1800s among the Plymouth Brethren (J. Nelson Darby)
